III. Reports

A. Chair Report – Emily Bonner

Dr. Bonner said that the new faculty workload policy has been passed by the Board of Regents. The next step is to work with administration to develop a HOP policy for UTSA. SYSFAC felt that a model policy would be too restrictive, so institutions have been tasked with developing their own individual policies.

B. Secretary of the General Faculty – Joshua Thurow

Regarding the faculty workload policy, Dr. Thurow said that initial meetings are being scheduled with the Provost to begin work on UTSA’s HOP policy. The policy must be completed, voted on, and approved by November 2018.

Dr. Thurow gave an update on the tuition and fee committee. The committee’s final meeting was November 15th where proposals were voted on and the committee’s recommendations were forwarded to the President. Recommendations include an increase in both tuition and various fees, as well as the implementation of differential tuition for COB and COE students. Once reviewed and approved by the President, the proposals will be sent to the Board of Regents for approval. In addition, the student fee portion must be approved by the student body.

C. Provost’s Report – Jesse Zapata (for Mauli Agrawal)

Dr. Zapata said that the Emeritus policy is being revamped in order to make Emeritus status more meritorious. He said that a committee looked at the current policy and made recommendations, which were sent to the HOP committee and then sent out for stakeholder review. As a stakeholder in the process, the Faculty Senate has an opportunity to review and make recommendations by January.

D. HOP Committee – Diane Walz

The HOP Committee reviewed the proposed revisions to HOP 2.03 ‘Emeritus Academic Titles’. The committee had two major concerns:

- A stipulation has been added that faculty must have been rated as “exceeds expectations” in 4 out of their last 5 reviews in order to qualify
- A stipulation has been added that faculty will only have one chance to apply for Emeritus status

Dr. Walz encouraged the senate to send her any comments within the next two weeks.

E. Curriculum Committee – Sakiko Oyama

The Curriculum Committee reviewed a proposal for the following 8 core curriculum courses:

1. ARC 2413 History of Architecture: Pre-history to the Middle Ages
2. ENG 2xxx Literature and Film
