While my courses are rigorous, students quickly learn that they have a learning partner who will assist them if they just ask for help. I constantly try to improve my instructional skills. I am always looking for new ways to make the content come alive in the classroom. My goal is to provide them with meaningful learning experiences that will be memorable and retained for a lifetime.

Michael Gilbert, Ph.D.
Associate Professor, Department of Criminal Justice
You might have an ambition to serve your community, perhaps by representing your hometown in Congress or working in the criminal justice system. Or you may possess a strong desire to work with nonprofit organizations, and have a meaningful impact on our society. Whether you plan to advocate for human rights or write legislation, through the College of Public Policy, you will acquire the knowledge and tools to shape the world in which we live.

BEGIN YOUR JOURNEY AT THE COLLEGE OF PUBLIC POLICY

We are housed in the Downtown Campus in close proximity to government, law enforcement, and nonprofit organizations. We partner with 150 public and nonprofit agencies to arrange internships for our students. We also offer the Nonprofit Leadership Alliance National Certification in Nonprofit Management and Leadership—one of only four programs in Texas.

• More than 1,300 students are enrolled in the College of Public Policy, including 900 undergraduates.
• The Bachelor of Public Administration degree program is designed to give students a broad background in the basics of administration with a contemporary focus on management, analysis, and ethics in urban government and the nonprofit sector.
• Faculty member Lloyd Potter serves as the state demographer for Texas. The college houses the Texas State Data Center and the Institute for Demographic and Socioeconomic Research.
