John Anderson
Regional Sustainability Steward
Aramark - Nacogdoches, TX

John Anderson joined Aramark in December 1991 and was appointed the South Region Sustainability Steward in August of 2016. This position was designed to support and develop initiatives to align with higher education’s goals on sustainability. He and his team work with all levels of university communities to partner and elevate sustainable practices, educate on dining’s involvement, and address environmental concerns. Supporting over 39 universities in the South Region, he’s continuously reducing dining’s environmental footprint.

Prior to joining Aramark, John worked in various management positions with both Service America and Marriott Corp. John holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Missouri – St. Louis and resides in Nacogdoches, TX.
