

Tenure Track/Tenured Assistant or Associate Professor of Public Administration
The University of Texas at San Antonio

The Department of Public Administration at the University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) invites applicants for a position at either the assistant or associate level beginning Fall 2010 (pending budget approval). For appointment at the Assistant Professor level, required qualifications include an earned Ph.D. in Public Administration, Public Policy, Urban Planning, Political Science or related discipline by August 15, 2010. Candidates must demonstrate evidence of excellence in research and teaching, or strong potential. For appointment at the Associate Professor level, the candidate must have an earned Ph.D. in Public Administration, Public Policy, Urban Planning, Political Science or related discipline, and must provide evidence of excellence in research, teaching and service. All candidates must indicate the rank at which they wish to be considered. Preferred qualifications include a specialization in Urban Planning or Development and/or a specialization in Nonprofit Management. The candidate should have the capacity to teach core courses in Public Administration.

Responsibilities include teaching, research, and service. Teaching may be at the graduate and/or undergraduate level. Courses will be offered primarily in the evenings at the UTSA Downtown Campus but may also be offered at the Main Campus. The department currently offers a NASPAA accredited Master of Public Administration (MPA) degree and an undergraduate minor in Nonprofit Management. The department provides American Humanics certification both at the graduate and undergraduate level and also offers a Certificate Program in Nonprofit Administration and Leadership. The department has proposed a joint Master's degree in Urban and Regional Planning with the UTSA College of Architecture. The department sees both nonprofit management and urban planning as strong future program directions.

UTSA is an emerging research university and one of the fastest growing public universities in Texas. It has a strong commitment to faculty research and community involvement.

San Antonio is a vital and growing metropolitan area, with substantial opportunities for professional research and community service. It offers a wide range of housing options, vital local cultural and artistic organizations, and the additional research opportunities of the University of Texas and the LBJ Presidential Library just an hour away in Austin.

Applicants must submit a letter of application; vita; names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references; one or two article-length manuscripts or other samples of research and writing; and teaching evaluations (if available) to: Faculty Search Committee Chair, Department of Public Administration, University of Texas at San Antonio, 501 W. Durango Blvd, San Antonio, Texas, 78207. ABD applicants must have their Dissertation Committee Chair send a letter to the Search Committee Chair indicating progress in degree completion and/or expected date of defense. Initial review of applicants will begin October 1, 2009 and will continue until the position is filled.

UTSA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States by time of hire.