What is the East Asia Student Forum?

It is an annual event that any student can participate in and give a presentation about current events and issues involving East Asia. This event is meant to deepen understanding and to raise awareness of what is currently happening in East Asia. The topic of the presentation should be based around social, cultural, political or economic affairs. Application opens Nov.19, 2016!!!

Join us and foster a deeper understanding of East Asia!

If you want to apply, Visit →https://goo.gl/forms/0iz36wYgnjgARfcl2 or scan the QR code to the right

For more info: Yuka Ito at yuka.ito@utsa.edu