

UTSA's East Asia Institute Presents

“Japanese-American Relations”

by

Deputy Consul General Mitsuru Murase
Consulate General of Japan in Houston

7:15-8:15pm

Wednesday, November 18, 2009

Business Building 1.01.20 T

UTSA main campus

Deputy Consul-General Murase, a graduate of Doshisha University of Kyoto, has served in Africa and the Middle East and will speak about the recent Japanese election, which resulted in a major shift of power from the Liberal Democratic Party to the Democratic Party of Japan, in addition to Japan's current economic situation. He will also discuss various aspects of the Japan-U.S. relations, including economic cooperation, climate change and regional cooperation as well as explain why Japan-U.S. relations are crucial.

East Asia Institute 210.458.4749
<http://www.utsa.edu/eai> eai@utsa.edu