Workshop Description
The AP European History Summer Institute will focus primarily on the skills students need to maximize scoring opportunities on the essay portions of the exam. The centerpiece of the institute will be the DBQ, the writing, and analytical skills associated with it. Portions of the week will also relate to new course content and preparing for the newly created course curriculum. Analysis of visual documents including fine art, political cartoons, charts, graphs and photography will also be covered.

What Participants Should Bring:
- Laptop
- Flash drive
- Favorite classroom activities

Consultant Bio
Mr. Funk has been a reader at both the World and European History exams and a Table Leader at the European history exam for the many years. He is a national mentor for the College Board and a consultant/trainer for the past 12 years. Tom trained as an archaeologist at the University of Virginia where he received his Masters degree in Anthropology, and subsequently served as the Historic Archaeologist for the State of North Carolina. He has taught at both the college and high school level former than 30 years. He has participated in archaeological research along the east coast of the United States, Central America and Peru.