

The UTSA Pre-Professions Office Institute for Law and Public Affairs is hosting Law School Fair, November 9, 2018

The UTSA Institute for Law and Public Affairs (ILPA) is hosting the Law School Fair for students interested in attending law school. It will take place at H-E-B Student Union Ballrooms 1&2, on November 9, from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm. This event, brought by the Southwest Association of Prelaw Advisors (SWAPLA) and the UTSA Institute for Law and Public Affairs (ILPA) is free and open to all.

At the fair, students will have the opportunity to meet representatives from approximately 90 ABA approved law schools (including all Texas law schools), and learn about admissions, financing, course offerings, student life, program reputation, and others.

The ILPA also offers prelaw advice to help students on their path to law school. The Institute's prelaw advisors, recognized by the Law School Admission Council (LSAC), provide information concerning legal education, course of action in preparations for law school, and advise and assist students on the law school application process.

Another great resource for those students considering law school is the UTSA Summer Law School Preparation Academy (SLSPA), offered by the ILPA. The program encompasses 12 credit hours and aims to enhance prelaw educational opportunities and increase the number of students who gain admission to and excel in high quality law schools. Since its inception, ILPA students have been admitted to more than 150 law schools in the United States, Europe and Puerto Rico.
