In collaboration between Delta Xi Nu Multicultural Sorority, the Office of International Programs, the College of Business International Business Programs, University Center Programs, the East Asia Institute, the Modern Languages department, and the Student Center for Community Engagement and Inclusion, Celebrate UTSA International will take place on November 17, from 4pm-6pm on the UC Paseo.

Celebrate UTSA International is taking place during International Education Week, which is an initiative driven by the US Department of State and the US Department of Education and aims to bring awareness to young Americans of their global environment, but also to promote the inter-cultural experience of living abroad.

This year’s itinerary for UTSA’s Celebrate International is packed with cultural events and performances, which include the following:

- Student Cultural Performances: UTSA cultural student organizations will be performing for the event. Some of these organizations include Black Lives Matter, Black Student Union Dance Team, Chinese Club, Korean Culture Club, and Sawani and Rachana who will be doing Indian dances.

- Cultural Fashion Show: Students lead a cultural fashion show displaying traditional and cultural dress.

- International Cuisine: FREE tastings of Rou Jia Mo (Chinese hamburger), Polenta Frita (Brazilian/Italian), Panuchos (Oaxaca, Mexico), Jamaican Meat Pie (Jamaican/Caribbean), Chicken Swarma (Middle East), Philly Cheesesteak (USA regional), Bhel Puri (Indian), Zeppole (Italian).

- FREE T-shirts!

For more information about the event or to request an accommodation, contact the UTSA Student Center for Community Engagement and Inclusion at (210) 458-4770 or go to University Center Suite 2.01.04 on the Main Campus.
