It is the obligation of the student to make a serious effort to resolve grievances concerning grades or other academic concerns or incidents with the student’s instructor. The instructor has the primary responsibility for assigning grades. Appeals of grades, therefore, will not be considered at levels above the course instructor unless there is evidence of discrimination, differential treatment, factual error, or violation of a relevant university policy. (See Academic and Grade Grievance Procedure in the Information Bulletin.)

IN NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL GRADES BE CHANGED AFTER ONE CALENDAR YEAR.

INSTRUCTIONS

- The student must first contact the faculty member and make a serious effort with the faculty member to resolve the matter. If the student is unsuccessful in resolving the matter with the faculty member, the student must complete this form and may appeal the grade or academic grievance to the Department Chair. The student may appeal the decision of the Department Chair to the Dean of the of the faculty member’s college, and then, if an undergraduate student, to the Dean of the University College, and if a graduate student, to the Dean of the Graduate School.

- State specifically the academic concern, academic incident, or grade(s) being appealed, and the action requested.

- Explain the basis for the appeal citing factors other than disagreement with a judgment of the instructor or administrator and provide all supporting documents. (Attach additional pages if necessary for explanation.)

Return the completed form to the Department Chair, and then, if appealing the Department Chair’s decision, to the Dean of the College, and finally, if appealing further, to the University College for undergraduates or to the Graduate School for graduate students to review. Written decisions will be sent to the address shown above.
