How to Apply

• Provide a two-page double-spaced essay detailing your academic accomplishments, community service, financial need, and plans for the future. Essays will count heavily in the selection process.

• Provide cover sheet (titled Transitional Scholarship) with your name, address, phone numbers, e-mail address; degree you are seeking, name of university; and number of hours completed toward degree.

• Enclose a résumé.

• Ask someone in the program in which you are enrolled to send a detailed letter of recommendation.

• Provide an official transcript of undergraduate work; if in the first semester of baccalaureate studies at a university, provide an official transcript of your associate degree work.

• On outside of envelope, write Transitional Scholarship.

Deadline is February 9, 2013
