San Antonio, Texas AAUW Branch's Scholarship Information for Applicants

The San Antonio Branch offers scholarships to assist women in purchasing required textbooks. Applications will be received from both undergraduate and graduate students who are attending a college or university in Bexar County. The postmark deadline is February 9, 2013 for applicants to submit their name, address, telephone number, email address, a short essay, no longer than 120 words, on what their goals are, transcript demonstrating a grade point average of 3.0 (or the equivalent or better). Mail application to: Book Scholarships, AAUW San Antonio, P.O. Box 460825, San Antonio, Texas 78246.

Every year this AAUW Branch awards several scholarships to local women pursuing various higher education degrees. The number of scholarships and their value will vary each year depending upon our fundraising and the amount our invested endowments earn.

Graduate Scholarships
The San Antonio Branch of the American Association of University Women offers scholarships to assist women in completing graduate degrees. Applications must be postmarked by February 9, 2013. Find more information about Graduate Scholarships here.

Text Book Scholarships
The San Antonio Branch offers scholarships to assist women in purchasing required textbooks. Applications will be received from both undergraduate and graduate students who are attending a college or university in Bexar County. The postmark deadline is February 9, 2013 for applicants to submit their name, address, telephone number, email address, a short essay, no longer than 120 words, on what their goals are, transcript demonstrating a grade point average of 3.0 (or the equivalent or better). Mail application to: Book Scholarships, AAUW San Antonio, P.O. Box 460825, San Antonio, Texas 78246.

Transitional Scholarships
The San Antonio Branch of the American Association of University Women offers Transitional Scholarships to assist women in completing baccalaureate degrees after they have completed two years of undergraduate work at a community college. Applications must be postmarked by February 9, 2013. Find more information about Transitional Scholarships here.