Fourth

Internal Affairs — Carlos A'Latorre presented the idea of a dance/beer bust/band on May 6, 1977, as suggested by the committee.

Motion by Carlos A'Latorre: That the SRA sponsor an end-of-semester party to be held May 6, 1977, Thursday, for the purpose of promoting student life; that 15 kegs of beer will be purchased, 2 bands will donate their services; students with I.D. will be assessed $0.50 (fifty cents), those without I.D. will be assessed $1.00 (one dollar); and that monies collected will be used to purchase subsequent kegs of beer that evening as money permits; and in the opinion of the Internal Affairs Committee, that if there is no further demand for beer that day, the surplus funds will be used to sponsor another such party within one (1) week of the close of the final examination period. No second, therefore no action taken.
