A regular meeting of the UTSA Student Representative Assembly convened on June 29, 1977, and took the following action:

CALL TO ORDER:

The meeting was called to order by President Steve Linahan at 2:49 p.m.

First:

The minutes were approved, with two spelling corrections.

Second:

Announcements to the S.R.A.:

Carlos A'Latorre read a letter from Bob Crowley which recommends a 2-piece musical group that can provide a lot of sound. Carlos will "audition" the group.

The External Affairs Committee turned in the nomination ballot of 53 names for the University Assembly Committees, as announced by Sam Banks.

President Linahan excused the absences of Celeste Scalise and M.J. Simonson from today's meeting.

Third:

Committee Reports:

Internal Affairs--Carlos A'Latorre informed the Assembly that no movies will be shown during the summer session; the party will not be held this Thursday (since President Flawn was not in town to sign the beer lease) but has been postponed to Friday, July 8, at 4:30 p.m.

External Affairs--Sherry Gillespie asked for suggestions for the Committee on Committees.

The Committee on the Student Directory will meet after this meeting.

The University Assembly Committees will meet this Wednesday; they will release a questionnaire on the functions of the Student Union.

Fourth:

Ivan Rodríguez informed the Assembly that Jane Duckworth wrote a memorandum to Dean Grossenbacher concerning the book swap; the idea of a book swap has met nothing but favorable comments.

Fifth:

Dr. Davis, one of the S.R.A. advisors, assured President Linahan that he will adjust his schedule to attend the Assembly meetings.

New Business:

Sam Banks suggested a check-cashing service to be handled by the S.R.A., with a charge of ten cents per check; a conflict would be the additional burden placed on the Accounting Office.

Jane Duckworth informed the Assembly that it cannot sell anything it does not own, such as in art sales and exhibits, according to a memorandum sent out by Dean Grossenbacher.

Sam Banks moved that we adjourn.

Members present: Terry Nira, Sherry L. Gillespie, Abel Menchaca, Sam Banks, Chuck Slaughter, M. Ivan Rodríguez, C.J. A'Latorre, Elizabeth Landez, Veronica Ibarra, Steve Linahan.

Guests present: Shirley Wills, Jane Duckworth, Leroy Martínez.
