THE UTSA STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY
MINUTES OF THE MEETING

July 6, 1977

A regular meeting of the UTSA Student Representative Assembly convened on July 6, 1977, and took the following action:

CALL TO ORDER:

The meeting was called to order by President Steve Linahan at 3:14 p.m.

First:
The minutes of the previous meeting were approved.

Second:
Announcements to the S.R.A.:

Terry Nira, recording secretary, resigned because she is moving to Austin.

There are three excused absences: Veronica Ibarra, Liz Landez and Sam Banks.

The beer party will be approved and students will go through the cafeteria to purchase beer, with the help of Dow Roberts.

Third:
Committee Reports:

Celeste Scalise announced that the University can not support a newspaper because of liability and other legal matters. It would cost about $700 an issue for sixteen pages. Many complications have arisen but further investigations are going on.

Fourth:
Old Business:

Ivan Rodriguez announced that the book trade would be postponed until the fall semester.

A reminder that S.R.A. members not enrolled in the second summer session have no vote but still count as a quorum.

Fifth:
The locks have been changed but the new keys have not been issued.

Chuck Slaughter moved the meeting be adjourned.
