      i. It’s going to be an awesome semester
      ii. Green fund is going really well, we are going through the finals stages of approval with the administration and once that is done we will bring it to the general assembly to approve as well. Other parts of the community are also putting money in to help further the projects.
      iii. Alcohol at Chili’s next meeting is January 21st, we are moving with the final proposal to take to Dr. Romo.
      iv. Greek-Housing committee was today, we will be researching Greek Housing options in the area and looking to sell them off in the area.
      v. We have two new committee Chairs, Victor is the Business Affairs and Chris Weldon is the Academic Affairs chair.
   b. Vice President – Nicole Munoz
      i. Take out your calendars, Xavier emailed out the Spring Calendar which has the dates for everything this month minus a few things that need to be added. The retreat was moved from this weekend to the 29th of January. It is from 2-6 on Saturday.
      ii. Greek Housing- first meeting went well. We know of the other proposals but we want to give the constituents as many options as possible.
      iii. The blue sheet you all received is the Student government Legislative Association flyer that has information. The two things on our agenda are the budget cuts and the 6 drop policy so we can start getting the ball rolling on this.
      iv. We are having an unofficial legislative meeting after General Assembly
   c. Treasurer – Roger Frigstad
      i. There were some complications with some of the groups applying for Leaderfund, we passed two more this week for 1500, we should be left with around 16-1700, it should be done by around February and we will make a proposal for increase by around March
   d. Secretary - Xavier Johnson
      i. Alumni Association meeting with legislators (Rob Killen- wants to know about the legislative flyer)
      ii. Setting up meeting with Clay Haverland, Dr.Cannon, and Jim Strahan to talk about transportation, that is going to be Monday January 24th in the Business Auxiliary Services conference room
      iii. Made a legislative flyer, it is the blue sheet in front of you iv. Emails are switched over to the SGA emails as you know, if you have not made one let me know
v. Emailed minutes and updated contact list to your email addresses

e. Executive Senator- Jason Hensley
i. We had a great first semester; hopefully we will retain that into this semester. I think personally a way to do that is to have some debate in here. We have been really involved but I would like to see us do some things on the issues.

6. Standing Committee Reports
a. Academic Affairs – Chris Weldon
i. We are working on an advising issue where certain colleges are not releasing degree plans to the Freshman advising office.
ii. Working on the library expansion and looking at certain sections of the library that they want to look at expanding the selections of the books.
iii. We are also going to wrap up the astronomy major/minor concern, with the budget cuts we really can’t do much with this other than wait for the department grow larger. It will be a long term project.
iv. Meetings are Tuesdays at 5 pm

b. Business Affairs – Victor Hinojosa
i. I’m glad to see everyone back.
ii. Looked at the folder full of concerns, we are focusing on those concerns. A big ticket issue is increasing the amount of residence spots around the housing complexes.
iii. We have a status on the bookstore: there were a lot of students who wanted more books available for rental, bookstore manager said that if he got a confirmation that the department chairs would use books for a semester, they would make more books available for rental. They also look for ebooks, the benefit is if you buy an ebook from CafeScribe you get the book forever.

7. Committee and Senator Reports
