Four C's Training ---- 2011 fall semester
(SD 415)

The Four C's is Student Affairs conceptual model used to pursue our path of achieving Excellence in Service and Programming. All new staff are required to attend the True Colors workshop to understand the division's common language and then attend the Four C's workshop to learn our vision, mission, core values and how to collaborate, connect, communicate, and create to achieve excellence. Please speak with department supervisors to assure sign-up for a Four C's class. 2011 fall classes are scheduled as follows:
