

Four C's Training ---- 2012 fall semester (SD 415)

The Four C's is Student Affairs conceptual model used to pursue our path of achieving Excellence in Service and Programming. All new staff are required to attend the True Colors workshop to understand the division's common language and then attend the Four C's workshop to learn our vision, mission, core values and how to collaborate, connect, communicate, and create to achieve excellence. Employees should coordinate their class attendance schedule with their supervisor and then email B.J. Gola @ bj.gola@utsa.edu to register for one of the following Four C's Training classes. Attendance is mandatory. (NOTE: Completion of a True Colors Class is required before an employee can sign-up for a Four C's Class.)

Four C's Training (SD 415) ----2012 fall classes are scheduled as follows:

Date	Time	Room Locations	Deadline for Sign-Up
October 23, 2012 (Tuesday)	9:00 – 12:00 noon	Harris Room/UC 2.212	10-11-11
October 25, 2012 (Thursday)	9:00 – 12:00 noon	Harris Room/UC 2.212	10-11-11
November 1, 2012 (Thursday)	1:00 - 4:00 pm	Harris Room/UC 2.212	10-22-11