Each year, forty UTSA students visit iconic sites of the African American Civil Rights Movement. Share their experience through this student-curated exhibition about this once in a lifetime journey. Discover how we can all continue to pursue the “Dream.”

Sponsored by the UTSA Student Leadership Center, the Inclusion and Community Engagement Center, and the Institute of Texan Cultures

“Civil Rights in Texas: Pursuing the DREAM, the Right to Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness”

A symposium hosted by the Institute of Texan Cultures in collaboration with the UTSA Department of History.

APRIL 16, 2013  3-8 P.M.