You’re Cordially Invited

Demography and Unequal Educational Opportunity: What I Learned From Texas

Presented by Marta Tienda

March 1, 2012
5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

The Riklin Auditorium
Frio Street Building, Room 1.406
UTSA Downtown Campus
Parking available in lot D3

Reception to follow in Buena Vista Room 1.338

for Information
marian.bownds@utsa.edu • 210-458-2566
RSVP Appreciated

MARTA TIENDA is the Maurice P. During ’22 Professor of Demographic Studies and Professor of Sociology and Public Affairs at Princeton University, where she directed the Office of Population Research from 1998 – 2002. Professor Tienda was recently appointed to the Commission on Key National Indicators and The President’s Commission on Educational Excellence for Hispanics. Her research has focused on the demography of racial and ethnic inequality, social policy, and international migration. She recently completed a decade-long study of equity and access to higher education, and is undertaking new research about migration of children and seniors.