COLLEGE OF MULTIDISCIPLINARY STUDIES
DIVISION OF BICULTURAL-BILINGUAL STUDIES

The Division does not offer an undergraduate degree in Bicultural-Bilingual Studies. Support courses that may be taken as electives are designed to provide students with training in bilingual and second language learning and teaching, as well as in associated cultural studies. These courses are of particular interest to students in bilingual teacher education at the elementary and secondary levels and to those majoring in business, law, social work, public relations, journalism, etc., who wish to apply cultural knowledge in their careers.

The Division also offers courses in English as a Second Language designed to introduce students to the various strategies and methods of analysis of languages. Courses are designed for students who plan to teach second languages, but they are also of benefit to those who intend to teach in other areas or to enter fields that rely heavily on an understanding of language, such as communications, speech therapy, law, and business. Courses in English as a Second Language are also of value to those whose principal aim is to enlarge their understanding of the role that language plays in society.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION

At the undergraduate level, three degree programs are available, the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Early Childhood and Elementary Education, the Bachelor of Science Degree in Health, and the Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Education. Although a degree in education and a teaching certificate are two different objectives, students wishing to be certified as elementary teachers or kindergarten teachers as well as students wishing to be certified as teachers of health at the elementary level or health and/or physical education at the secondary level should pursue one of these three degree programs in education. Students majoring in these degree programs should enroll in professional education courses throughout the sophomore, junior, and senior years. In the first semester of their freshman year they should contact the Undergraduate Advisor of the Division of Education to facilitate program planning. Failure to do so may result in a longer degree program than might otherwise be required.

Students wishing to be certified as secondary school teachers follow degree programs in other Divisions of UT San Antonio, according to their major teaching field, and take courses for Teacher Certification in the Division of Education. Twenty-two semester hours of support work in education are required:

A. 10 semester hours of Pre-Professional Semester courses:
   EDU 2001, EDU 3003,
   EDP 3013, EDU 4093.

B. 12 semester hours of Professional Semester courses:
   EDP 4013, EDU 4072,
   EDU 4031, EDU 4056.

All students seeking Texas teaching certificates must apply for admission to the appropriate certificate program. Application forms and brochures describing requirements and procedures are available from the Office of Teacher Certification and Placement in the Division of Education.

Admission to Education Professional Semester courses is contingent upon the written recommendations of three UTSA professors, at least two of whom must be in Education, and approval of the Director of Student Teaching. Students who are not admitted and those who do not seek a teaching certificate may, with approval of the Undergraduate Advisor, substitute appropriate course work equivalent to the number of credit hours in the Professional Semester to earn an undergraduate degree in education without certification.

Any student at UTSA can elect to take Pre-Professional Semester education courses and if later admitted to a teacher education program, can petition to have the courses counted toward that program.
