UTSA faculty and staff are invited to a special presentation by New York Times bestselling author and former U.S. Army Captain Luis Carlos Montalván — accompanied by his service dog, Tuesday — as he shares his experiences of war and healing, trauma and recovery, mental health, and pursuing his higher degree.

Also featuring remarks by
Lisa Firmin, Associate, Provost for Diversity and Recruitment
Dianne Hengst, Director of Student Disability Services

Book signing to follow – Light refreshments will be served

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

A 17-year veteran of the U.S. Army, Captain Montalván served multiple tours abroad and was decorated with numerous awards including two Bronze Stars, the Purple Heart, the Army Commendation Medal for Valor, and the Combat Action Badge. In 2007, Montalván honorably departed the military and in 2010 completed a master’s of science from Columbia University’s Graduate School of Journalism. He is the author of two books — Until Tuesday: A Wounded Warrior and the Golden Retriever Who Saved Him and Tuesday Tucks Me In: The Loyal Bond Between a Soldier and his Service Dog. His forthcoming children’s book, Tuesday Takes Me There, will be published in June 2016.
