

Mr. Lupton's research involves an investigation into the hydrologic connection between the Llano Uplift and the Trinity Hill Country aquifer systems. Questions include:

- What are the local and regional flow paths that move groundwater from the Trinity Hill Country aquifer to the Llano Uplift aquifer and to the Pedernales River?
- What portion of groundwater recharge moves along these various flow paths?