UTSA is the second-largest institution in the University of Texas System, UTSA has been one of the state’s fastest-growing public universities for much of the last decade. With more than 27,000 students enrolled in more than 120 undergraduate and graduate degree programs, UTSA is the second-largest institution in the University of Texas System. UTSA has been one of the state’s fastest-growing public universities for much of the last decade.

UTSA directly and indirectly produces more than $1 billion in annual business activity in Texas and generates more than 6,500 jobs and $200 million in personal income. Over the past five years, research funding at UTSA has increased to more than $94 million, raising UTSA among the top third of institutions in the nation for research and discovery, and community engagement.

UTSA’s 1604 Campus

The University of Texas at San Antonio, a public university of the first class. UTSA's actual first campus was under construction on donated land near the intersection of Interstate 10 and Loop 410 in northwest San Antonio. The 1604 Campus Visitor Center, located in the Frio Street Building, is open 8 a.m.–5 p.m. Monday through Friday during the fall and spring semesters. Appointments are not necessary, but encouraged. You can schedule a visit at the Visitor Center Web site. Group tours must be arranged by appointment. To schedule, click on our Web site at www.utsa.edu/visitor/

For more information about visiting the 1604 Campus, contact the Visitor Center at (210) 458-5142 or visit our Web site at www.utsa.edu/visitor/.

The Institute of Texan Cultures

The Institute of Texan Cultures is open 10 a.m.–5 p.m. Monday–Saturday during the fall, spring and summer semesters. The Institute sponsors teacher training programs and family events, including the annual Texas Folklife Festival and the Asian New Year Festival.

THE CAMPUS

The 1604 Campus

www.utsa.edu/campus

The 1604 Campus is located on 135 acres in northwest San Antonio. The campus borders the Texas Hill Country and is just a 20-minute drive from downtown. The 1604 Campus is a traditional college campus that includes academic and administrative buildings, student facilities and on-campus housing.

The Downtown Campus

www.utsa.edu/downtown

The Downtown Campus offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs for those who live or work near downtown San Antonio. The campus is located at the intersection of Broadway and Frio Street near such attractions as the Alamo and the River Walk. More than 6,000 students attend classes and pursue degrees at the campus. The campus offers a full complement of student services. UTSA offers free bus rides between the 1604 Campus and the Downtown Campus through the UTSA VIA bus system.

The Institute of Texan Cultures

www.texancultures.utsa.edu

The Institute of Texan Cultures, located just east of downtown San Antonio, contains more than 50,000 square feet of exhibits about the many ethnic and cultural groups that settled Texas. The Institute sponsors teacher training programs and family events, including the annual Texas Folklife Festival and the Asian New Year Festival.

VISITING THE CAMPUS

The 1604 Campus

The 1604 Campus Visitor Center, located in the Business Building, is open 8 a.m.—5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m.—5 p.m. Saturday during the fall, spring and summer (May-August) semesters. Campus tours are offered at 10 a.m., 12 p.m. and 2 p.m. Monday through Friday during the fall and spring semesters. Appointments are not necessary, but encouraged. You can schedule a visit at the Visitor Center Web site. Group tours must be arranged by appointment. To schedule, click on our Web site at www.utsa.edu/visitor/.

The Downtown Campus

The Downtown Campus Visitor Center, located in the Fine Arts Building, is open 8 a.m.—5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Tours are offered at 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Group tours must also be arranged at www.utsa.edu/visitor/.