

Integrated Design Initiative – Phase III

Integrated Design Task Force & Visioning Team

Phase I Findings: Emphasized...

- The connection to the San Antonio community,
- Marketable and emerging technical skills,
- Internships and student networking,
- International programs and study abroad,
- Student experience in interdisciplinary teams,
- Integrated curricular and research content,
- Enhanced relationships and partnerships with industry partners and the private sector,
- Data analytics and technologies to enhance public understanding and find new knowledge in our fields,
- Future opportunities for the new college could be built around excellence and innovation; leadership and collaboration; and integrity, inclusiveness, and respect,
- The programs within these two colleges exist together at other institutions through a combination of Departments, Schools, and Research Institutes.

Phase II Findings: Feedback on notional designs...

All

- Preserve identity of all degree programs
- Preserve accreditation of programs
- Foster transdisciplinary “convergent” research themes and community engagement
- Student perspectives, success, and needs at the forefront of all efforts
  - Easy navigation between fields
  - Secure jobs
- Simple administrative units, leverage strong administrative services
  - Maintain current spaces, listen to individual needs
  - Consider joint appointments

Structurally:

- All models support School Architecture, Urban and Regional Planning (URP), Interior Design; Accreditation for URP
- Mechanical, Electrical & Computer, Biomedical & Chemical Departments remain same, possible name changes
- Variation with Civil & Environmental Engineering (CEE) and Construction Science & Management (CSM)
  - Civil & Environmental stay together
  - Much overlap with CSM, mostly agreeable to work together, preserve identity and accreditation, consider School
