

Business
Contracts
Office

Facilitates execution of a wide range of business contracts and provides transactional expertise to advocate in the best interest of the university and its departments