2019 UTSA Summer Program in Kyoto, Japan

June 29-July 21, 2019
Kyoto University of Foreign Studies

Experience Japan and learn Japanese at a whole new level!

• Three weeks of language immersion at Kyoto Univ. of Foreign Studies (KUFS)
• Cultural immersion and experience through tea ceremony, calligraphy, and field trips to Arashiyama and Gion Festival (tentative)
• Program fees: $1,400 USD, which covers KUFS program fee, 3-week shared accommodation, and field trips
• Meals and weekend outing expenses of student’s choice are not included
• Students are responsible for getting a passport/visa and paying UTSA international education fee ($150). Students may have to pay for international travel insurance ($60 or so) if the UT System does not cover it.
• Airfare NOT included: students are responsible for their round trip airfare to Japan. The nearest airport to Kyoto is Kansai (KIX) or Itami (ITM) Airport.
• Students are required to register in a summer course (TBA) and pay 3 credit-hour tuition to UTSA to be eligible for this program
• Eligible students may be able to apply for a $500 scholarship from the EAI office and a $300-$1,200 scholarship from the OIP office depending on the qualification. Apply at http://www.utsa.edu/eai
• Application deadline: Nov. 27 (5:00 p.m., CST)
• Contact mimi.yu@utsa.edu if you have any questions
