This lecture will give an overview of Taiwan’s economic development and describe the industrial clusters development in Taiwan. It further examines how Taiwan’s IT industry occupies a competitive position in the global supply chain that is irreplaceable. Finally, the talk will illustrate how Taiwan is an ideal gateway for the U.S. business to Asia-Pacific including Chinese markets.