
UTSA Sexual Harassment and Assault Prevention Partners

Rev. 2/17/2017

For more than a decade, UTSA has developed and provided resources to students, faculty members and staff members to deter, prevent and respond to reports of intimate and interpersonal violence. This university-wide response is a collaborative effort that includes the following UTSA offices:

Equal Opportunity Services

The UTSA Office of Equal Opportunity Services (EOS) develops and sustains a learning and working environment at UTSA that is diverse, inclusive and free of illegal discrimination and harassment. EOS assists individuals in reporting and investigating Title IX claims, and it conducts Title IX and Campus SaVE training for students, faculty and staff. It is also home to the university's Title IX Coordinator. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/eos or 210-458-4120 or view UTSA's Title IX policy at www.utsa.edu/eos/titleix.html.

UTSA Police Department

The UTSA Police Department protects and serves all persons within the UTSA community, while protecting the resources of the community. The police department is also home to a comprehensive Crime Prevention Unit, established in 1994, that offers education and awareness programs on a wide variety of topics such as self-defense, alcohol awareness and sexual assault prevention. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/utsapd or call 210-458-4911 for emergencies and 210-458-4242 for non-emergencies.

UTSA Counseling Services

The UTSA Counseling Services offices, located at the Main and Downtown Campuses, offer UTSA students with a variety of professional counseling services including group counseling, individual counseling and psychiatry services. Counselors are specially trained in treating post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), which can impact victims of sexual assault. Additionally, UTSA Counseling Services offers a 24/7 Crisis Hotline at 210-458-4140. All services are confidential and available in Spanish. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/counsel/# or 210-458-4140.

Student Health Services

UTSA Student Health Services provides confidential health care services and wellness programs for enrolled UTSA students. Services include general medical care, women's wellness, health education, immunizations, laboratory work and STI testing. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/health/visit/ or 210-458-4142.

UTSA Ombudspersons

UTSA has two ombudspersons that provide confidential, neutral and timely services to members of the university community. The Student Ombudsperson helps UTSA students navigate unique challenges in a welcoming and safe environment. The Academic Affairs Ombudsperson helps members of the academic community. Contact the Student Ombudsperson at 210-458-4136 and the Academic Ombudsperson at 210-458-5605.

UTSA Office of Institutional Compliance and Risk Services

The Institutional Compliance and Risk Services office ensures all areas of UTSA are compliant in observing federal and state laws, including Title IX and the SaVE Act. The office also provides a hotline for students, faculty and staff to report non-compliance issues and concerns at 1-877-270-5051. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/compliance/.

UTSA Housing and Residence Life

The UTSA Housing and Residence Life office oversees three on-campus residence facilities – Laurel Village, Chaparral Village and Alvarez Hall – and provides programs, counseling and other services to students to promote campus connectedness, safety and the deterrence of crime. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/housing or 210-458-6200.

UTSA Office of Student Activities

The UTSA Office of Student Activities enhances the student experience by creating opportunities for purposeful connections to the UTSA community through discovery, student development and involvement. Its ongoing programming helps students achieve their personal best in a safe environment. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/sa/ or 210-458-4160.

UTSA Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards

Student Conduct and Community Standards upholds the high behavioral and academic standards of the UTSA Student Code of Conduct by helping students grow individually and as members of the UTSA community through intentional transformation of their decision making patterns. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/studentlife/conduct/ or 210-458-4720.

Student Center for Community Engagement and Inclusion

The Student Center for Community Engagement and Inclusion offers a space and support for all members of the university community to explore issues relating to culture, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, sexual identity and other topics. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/inclusion/index.html or 210-458-4770.

UTSA Women's Studies Institute

The UTSA Women's Studies Institute, housed in the College of Education and Human Development, offers UTSA's academic program in women's studies. It also forges working relationships with the greater campus community and across San Antonio to address issues relating to women's leadership in the 21st century. Learn more at <http://education.utsa.edu/womens-studies/> or 210-458-6277.

Spectrum

This registered student organization supports the university's LGBTQ community by providing a safe space for LGBTQ people, their allies and students questioning their sexuality or gender. Spectrum also educates the community about sexuality, gender and sexual health issues and advocates for LGBTQ equality. Learn more at gayUTSA1604@gmail.com.

Intersections at UTSA

This registered student organization creates a safe space for LGBTQ students, encourages them to become involved in the LGBTQ issues and educates the UTSA community about LGBTQ social justice issues. Learn more at utsa.collegiatelink.net/organization/intersectionsutsa.

Students Against Sexual Assault

This registered student organization advocates for sexual violence awareness and prevention on campus and provides a safe place for students to gain emotional and social support from their peers. Learn more at utsa.collegiatelink.net/organization/StudentsAgainstSexualAssault.

Behavioral Intervention Team

A team that includes staff members from the Office of Student Life, Counseling Services, Academic Affairs, Human Resources and UTSA PD is in place to respectfully, confidentially and professionally respond to reports of concerning behavior observed within the UTSA community. Reports may be submitted online or via phone. Learn more at www.utsa.edu/bit.
