

RACE

ROADRUNNER ATHLETICS CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

OVERVIEW

UTSA and the Roadrunner Foundation are setting a bold and visionary course for the future of UTSA Athletics.

RACE is another foundational project in UTSA's commitment as an urban serving and community engaged university.

RACE KEY FEATURES:

- » Academic Center
- » Two Practice Fields
- » Sports Medicine Center
- » Strength & Conditioning Center
- » Football Locker Room
- » Meeting Rooms
- » Student-Athlete Lounge
- » Coaches and Administrative Offices

The Roadrunner Athletics Center of Excellence is part of a multitiered project that will provide state-of-the-art training facilities for UTSA student-athletes and recreational resources for use by the San Antonio community.

Total Facility Space	94,773 square feet
-----------------------------	--------------------

Total Field Space	180,730 square feet
--------------------------	---------------------

Total Cost	$41.5 million
-------------------	----------------

Completion Date	Summer 2021
------------------------	-------------

RACE

ROADRUNNER ATHLETICS CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

“RACE will be the hub of UTSA Athletics and will provide all of our student-athletes, coaches and staff with the resources to achieve our mission of developing champions in the classroom, in competition and in life.”

Lisa Campos
Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics

RACE Funding Sources & Construction

- » Total construction cost: $41.5 million
- » Philanthropic commitments to date: $13.1 million (including $10 million raised in the last year)
- » Available funds from 2017 City of San Antonio bond referendum: $10 million
- » UTSA Athletics annual payment, built into base budget, to Roadrunner Foundation: $1 million
- » RACE will be donated to university by Foundation following final payment
- » Project architects: Populous, MarmonMok
- » Construction firm: Joeris Construction

