ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS
Each academic year, scholars will be reviewed to ensure they remain in academic compliance with the UTSA Top Scholar program and the Honors College. To remain in good standing and maintain eligibility with the UTSA Top Scholar program, the following requirements must be fulfilled:

Minimum GPA and Credit-Hours
Scholars must maintain a semester and overall cumulative 3.50 GPA at UTSA. Course grades of a B or better are required in all major courses. Any scholar whose GPA falls below a 3.50 must appear before the Top Scholar or Honors College Standards Committee. Competitive graduate and professional schools seek students with GPAs of at least 3.50-3.75, with excellent grades in major and professional school pre-requisite courses. Nationally competitive awards generally look for students with GPAs of 3.75 or better. NOTE: Academic struggles should be reported immediately to Program Administrators. Communication (or lack thereof) will be considered a factor in an appeal for special circumstances.

Scholars are required to take 15 hours in each long (Fall and Spring) semester. If a scholar wishes to take more than 18 credit hours or less than 15 credit hours in any one semester, written approval must be received from Program Administrators prior to registration. Petitions for exceptions to this policy must be received with required documentation by the published deadline each semester.

Honors College Eligibility
Eligibility for the Honors College must be maintained, including GPA, curricular, experiential, and events requirements. Any scholar placed on academic probation by the Honors College, or who are deemed at risk for losing Honors College benefits following academic compliance reviews, must appear before the Top Scholar or Honors College Standards Committee. Academic compliance with the Honors College is assessed at the end of each spring. Top Scholars are expected to exceed, not just meet, Honors College requirements.

Communication
Scholars must communicate professionally and consistently with Program Administrators, in a timely manner. Scholars are expected to respond to emails and phone calls within 24 hours, and keep Program Administrators abreast of any circumstances which could impact academic or program performance. This includes, but is not limited to, items such as class grades, financial issues, employment status, health issues, and family commitments which may avert the scholar’s time and attention. Changes or alterations to schedules which might impact a bill should be communicated immediately to Program Administrators. Exceptions to any Top Scholar requirements or policies should be requested, in writing, with as much notice as possible. This includes any and all requests related to required reports such as the mid-year and end-of-year report. Failure to communicate promptly and professionally with Program Administrators, can result in appearing before the Top Scholar or Honors College Standards Committee, placement on an improvement plan, and possibly face loss of benefits.

Scholars referred to the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, local or other law enforcement offices, or any other pertinent agency for a suspected violation are required to immediately inform the Program Administrators in writing and provide regular updates about the status of case, including any and all factors which might impact the final determination of the case or sanction. This includes, but is not limited to, an alleged violation of a state, federal, or international law, UTSA policy, honor code, conduct code, or ethical expectations, even if no independent administrative proceeding is pursued.

Email is the preferred method of communication with all university officials, including Top Scholar Program Administrators. Text messages and phone calls outside of normal business hours should be reserved for emergency situations.

Enrichment Requirements

UTSA Top Scholars are expected to fully participate in enrichment activities.

Annual Orientation/Retreat

Prior to the start of each academic year, scholars are required to attend a retreat with other members of the UTSA Top Scholar program. If a scholar is unable to participate, a written request with justification for permission for an excused absence must be provided to Program Administrators. Excused absences will only be permitted in truly extraordinary circumstances. Personal, family, and other travel as well as matters of convenience will not be excused. For first year students, the retreat is designed to introduce the UTSA Top Scholar program, its administrators and fellow scholars, and build esprit de corps. For students in subsequent years, the retreat is a time for planning, professional and leadership development, reflection, and team building. Unexcused absences may be referred to the Top Scholar or Honors College Standards Committee and could result in possible loss of benefits.

Global Experience

Scholars must complete one global experience. Program Administrators will provide information and resources on various opportunities. Scholars are expected to also explore options on their own to tailor the global experience to individual educational goals. Program Administrators will assist scholars in connecting to alumni and other professionals in their area of interest; however, it is the responsibility of the scholar to apply, interview, and secure the global experience. All global experiences funded by the UTSA Top Scholar program must be registered with UTSA Education Abroad Services. Global experiences which do not have a credit bearing component will require substantial additional justification and documentation.
Prior to departure scholars must complete a safety briefing with the Program Director. Upon return from the experience scholars are required to submit a reflection report and participate in the Honors College Experiential Learning Fair. Additional information about the Global Experience, including applying for funding, budget requirements, and requirements during the trip and upon return can be found in the appendix to this handbook. Scholars are required to enroll in HON 3951, a course designed to help students reflect and document learning outcomes, while abroad. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic this requirement may be waived if deemed appropriate and necessary by Program Administrators.

Professional and Research Experience
UTSA Top Scholars must complete at least one professional or research experience related to their field of study. Scholars are encouraged to complete one per year beginning no later than the second year of study. Program Administrators will assist scholars in connecting to professionals and researchers in their area of interest; however, it is the responsibility of the scholar to apply, interview, and secure the professional or research experience. Scholars should use the resources and information provided by the UTSA Career Center, the Office of Undergraduate Research, or the college of their major to explore potential opportunities and to tailor the experience to individual educational goals. Professional and research experiences include, but are not limited to: internships, special projects, lab placements, or co-ops. More information on requests for funding to attend professional conferences can be found in the appendix to this handbook. It is also the expectation that research will be presented in some form at the Honors College Experiential Learning Fair, a conference, symposium, or other venue.

Service Component
Scholars must participate in community service throughout their four years on campus, including at least one cohort service project during each year. Individual service goals should be established each long semester, and demonstrate progressively more focus, commitment, and purpose over the course of 4 years.

Faculty Mentoring
Faculty mentors will be matched with scholars in the second year of study pending special circumstances. Scholars are expected to actively engage in the faculty mentoring process, including identification and recommendations of a faculty mentor to Program Administrators. Scholars will meet with faculty mentors several times during each semester to discuss academic projects, professional opportunities, and development of post-graduate plans. Under the guidance of a faculty mentor, all scholars will develop, and maintain, a plan for professional development. Additional information about faculty mentoring can be found in the appendix to this handbook.

Cultural and Social Activities
Scholars are expected to participate in cultural and social activities throughout their four years on campus. Examples of social and cultural experiences include Roadrunner Days, Social Justice
Events, activities with the Student Leadership and Volunteer Services Center, Women’s History Month, Honors College events, the UTSA Top Scholar program end of year celebration and the UTSA Top Scholar program winter holiday party.

Mandatory Agreements, Meetings and Reports
A tentative schedule of deadlines and events for the upcoming semester will be provided to students each semester. The official schedule will also be posted in Blackboard Learn and distributed via email.

Acceptance Agreement
Scholars must agree to the terms contained in the Acceptance Agreement, to be signed on an annual basis. If the scholar is a minor, the Acceptance Agreement must also be signed by a parent or guardian. An example of the UTSA Top Scholar program Acceptance Agreement appears in the appendix to this handbook.

University Housing
Scholars must adhere to the terms contained in the University Housing Contract while living on campus. This includes all obligations and agreements, financial and otherwise, outlined in the University Housing Contract. Scholars must adhere to the standards and obligations set forth as part of the Housing and Residence Life Code of Conduct. If for any reason a scholar fails to maintain eligibility or decides for personal reasons to withdraw from the program and scholarship benefits are terminated, he or she remains responsible for charges accrued under the University Housing Contract, including but not limited to the Liquidated Damages Charge and remaining rent for unfulfilled contracts. Any and all fees outside of mandatory room charges are the sole responsibility of the scholar. This includes but is not limited to damages, late fees, change fees, and cancellation charges.

Scholars referred to the Office of Housing and Residence Life for a suspected violation are required to immediately inform the Program Administrators in writing and provide regular updates about the status of case, including any and all factors which might impact the final determination of the case or sanction. This includes, but is not limited to, an alleged violation of a UTSA policy, honor code, conduct code, or ethical expectations, even if no independent administrative proceeding is pursued.

Scholars must give permission for the UTSA Top Scholar program to have access to any and all information, including FERPA protected data, pertaining to any and all conduct cases or sanctions.

If any scholar is dismissed from the UTSA Top Scholar program, that scholar may not remain in a room reserved for UTSA Top Scholars. Exceptions to these terms will only be granted in extraordinary circumstances negotiated directly with The University of Texas at San Antonio Office of Housing and Residence Life.
The deadline to declare housing preferences is February 1 each year.

Disclosure of Scholarship Funds
UTSA Top Scholars must disclose all scholarships to the UTSA Top Scholar program, including external funds not routed through UTSA. This disclosure must be completed and turned in by every scholar every year, even if there are no outside scholarships to disclose. A copy of the disclosure agreement can be found in the appendix to this handbook. This disclosure must be turned in to Program Administrators prior to the beginning of the fall semester each year or at any time a scholarship or external funding is received.

Class Schedule
No later than the census day of each semester, scholars must submit a final class schedule to Program Administrators. This should be submitted via email in a day x time format. Program Administrators will notify scholars of census dates.

Grade Report
Program Administrators will conduct midterm and final semester grade checks within 72 hours of their official submission each semester. Scholars are responsible for informing Program Administrators promptly of any anticipated problems with grades. Any student demonstrating academic difficulty will be placed on an Academic Improvement Plan.

Degree Plan, Resume, and Personal Statement
Scholars must submit a copy of their degree plan to Program Administrators no later than the end of their first semester. An updated copy of the degree plan, resume, and personal statement must be submitted to Program Administrators once per year each spring semester. Scholars should consult with the UTSA Career Center for assistance with resume development.

Enrichment Progress Report
No later than 7 calendar days after returning from a Top Scholar supported or funded enrichment experience, global experience, or professional experience activity, scholars must submit a reflection report providing an overview of the experience. The overall format of the report is unspecified, but should include (1) reason this activity was chosen, (2) several items discovered or learned from participating in the activity, and (3) whether or not the major goals of participating in this activity were accomplished. Scholars must complete a blog chronicling their global experience and enroll in HON 3951.

Mid-Year Report
No later than the end of November each year, scholars must submit a written mid-year report to the Top Scholar program. An in-person meeting may also be required at the discretion of Program Administrators. Specific deadlines for this report and presentation will be published via Blackboard Learn and/or email. Any exceptions to the deadlines or submission requirements must be requested in writing, in advance. Unexcused, incomplete, or otherwise insufficient mid-year reporting may be referred to the Top Scholar or Honors College Standards Committee and could result in possible loss of benefits. An example of the requirements for this report can be found in the appendix to this handbook.

Annual End of Year Report and Presentation

An annual end of year report and presentation will be required by each scholar. This report and presentation is due at the end of each spring semester before final exams begin. Specific deadlines for this report and presentation will be published via Blackboard Learn and/or email. Any exceptions to the deadlines or submission requirements must be requested in writing, in advance. Unexcused, incomplete, or otherwise insufficient end-of-year reporting may be referred to the Top Scholar or Honors Standards Committee and could result in possible loss of benefits. An example of the requirements for this report can be found in the appendix to this handbook.

All scholars are expected to attend at least one (1) end of year presentation in addition to their own.

Senior Exit Report

Each scholar must submit a senior exit report prior to the end of their graduation semester. The report should include an overview of the scholar’s entire experience in the UTSA Top Scholar program. Previous annual reports and plans for professional development (developed with faculty mentors) will be beneficial in preparing this final report. Specific deadlines for this report and presentation will be published via Blackboard Learn and/or email. Any exceptions to the deadlines or submission requirements must be requested in writing, in advance. Unexcused, incomplete, or otherwise insufficient senior exit reporting may be referred to the Top Scholar or Honors College Standards Committee and could result in possible loss of benefits.

All scholars are expected to attend at least one (1) senior exit presentation. This requirement is in addition to attending a regular end of year presentation.

Meetings

Scholars will have regularly scheduled meetings with the Program Administrators each semester. All-Scholar meetings will be held every week during the long semesters, and as necessary. Attendance is mandatory unless the scholar obtains prior written approval.

Contact Information

It is each scholar’s responsibility to provide Program Administrators with current contact information, including all phone numbers, email, and mailing addresses. Program Administrators must be notified in a timely manner if any information changes. Each scholar must have a current emergency contact on file with the UTSA Top Scholar office at all times.

Appendix 3: Global experience
Global Experience

UTSA Top Scholars are required to complete at least one global experience, and are encouraged to complete more if their degree plan permits. Funded opportunities should be directly connected to a scholar’s academic, career, or professional goals as well as a connection to the Top Scholar pillars of knowledge, leadership, and service. Some examples of global experiences are, but not limited to, study abroad, faculty-led group travel, international research, international internships, and student exchange programs. Global experiences which do not have a credit bearing component will require additional justification and documentation. Scholar must enroll in HON 3951 while abroad. Program Administrators will provide information and resources on various opportunities, and assist scholars in connecting to programs and professionals in their area of interest. Scholars are expected to also individually explore options to tailor experiences to their own educational goals. All global experiences funded by the UTSA Top Scholar program must be registered with UTSA Education Abroad Services and International SOS. Scholars are expected to fully engage with the International SOS app (phone app for emergencies) while abroad. Due to the COVID 19 global pandemic this requirement may be waived if deemed appropriate by the UTSA Top Scholar program and Honors College administration.

The following guidelines apply to global experiences funded by the UTSA Top Scholar program.

Scholars must notify Program Administrators in writing of their intention to participate in a global experience by completing the initial funding request by the following deadlines:

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>

It is the responsibility of the scholar to apply, interview, and secure the global experience. Scholars should have a passport and preliminary research completed about the experience they want to pursue when they notify Program Administrators of an intention to go abroad. Scholars must provide Program Administrators sufficient information on the proposed experience so that the program’s relevance to a scholar’s educational and career goals is apparent. Global experiences must be programs that the UTSA Education Abroad Services office has deemed legitimate and safe for undergraduate students. An application must be submitted to the UTSA Education Abroad Services office within 2 weeks (14 days) of submitting a request for initial funding.
The UTSA Top Scholar program will fund the cost of one experience up to $7,000. In most cases, students going abroad during a regular long semester may also apply a portion of their tuition and fees scholarship funds toward the experience. All expenses greater than allowable scholarship plus up to $7,000 are the responsibility of the scholar. Application fees, and personal and indirect costs (local transportation, spending money, side trips, etc.) are the responsibility of the scholar. A request for early disbursement must be submitted through the UTSA Top Scholar program to the Office of Student Financial Aid no later than the beginning of the semester prior to the scheduled experience. Scholars are highly encouraged to also seek funding through individual departments and outside foundations (such as the Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship) to help pay for global experiences. All scholars requesting funding should submit a budget using the template provided by the UTSA Education Abroad Services office. Receipts and other confirmations of costs and payments made will need to be submitted as soon as possible.

All Scholars are expected to create, and update at least once per week, a blog documenting their global experience. The blog address must be created and identified no later than one full calendar week prior to departure on the trip. The exact format for the blog is unspecified but must include an acknowledgement of the UTSA Top Scholar program for funding the opportunity.

After the experience is completed, scholars are responsible for securing any and all documents, including transcripts and syllabi, needed for academic credit to be awarded. Scholars must submit an enrichment report to Program Administrators no later than 2 weeks (14 calendar days) after returning from the experience.

Reflection Rubric
Within 14 days of returning from the Global Experience scholars are required to provide a written report to the UTSA Top Scholar program. The exact format and length of this report is not prescribed. However, this report should include, at a minimum,

1. reason for choosing this particular Global Experience
2. a plan of action for sharing lessons learned while abroad with fellow scholars, and
3. 3-5 items discovered or learned from the time abroad related to personal, academic, or career goals.

Scholars are expected to share photos during and after their time abroad which the UTSA Top Scholar program may use in marketing, presentations to on and off campus partners, and other public relations materials.
Scholars are expected to participate in the Honors College Experiential Learning Fair following their return from abroad. The poster for the fair must include an acknowledgement of the UTSA Top Scholar program.

End of year report
An example of the end of year written report is provided below. This report is due at the end of each spring semester before final exams begin. This form will be made available electronically each year.

Scholars are expected to attend at least one (1) end of year presentation and one (1) senior exit presentation in addition to their own.

UTSA Top Scholar End of Year Report

The purpose of this exercise is to give each Scholar the opportunity to reflect on, and then synthesize their experiences from the year, and to provide the program administrators a synopsis of those experiences. Additionally, this is a chance to look forward to next year as a team. This is not an essay exam. The intent here is to begin a dialogue about what we (you and the program staff) have completed, how those things went, and what we want to do in the near future. Questions have been written to help provide some structure while also allowing each Scholar to be creative in their responses.

- Present a professional PowerPoint presentation lasting 10-15 minutes to Top Scholar staff followed by 10 minutes of discussion with the staff.
  - Format for the verbal presentation is not prescribed
  - Professional dress
- Submit an accompanying written report with an updated resume and degree plan.
  - Written reports should be submitted no later than 48 hours prior to the time that presentation is scheduled
  - Report should address how you have embodied the UTSA Top Scholar 3 Pillars: Knowledge, Leadership, and Service
  - Template for the written report is provided below

Appendix 6: Request for professional development, enrichment, and conference funding
Request for enrichment funding

UTSA Top Scholars are encouraged to participate in enrichment experiences offered through offices outside of the UTSA Top Scholar program. Examples of these experiences include, but are not limited to, experiences offered through individual academic departments, Alternative Breaks, the Civil Rights and Social Justice Experience offered through the Student Leadership Center, events with the Center for Civic Engagement, Texas Diversity Council events, experiences with the College of Business Center for Student Professional Development, and Inclusion Center Heritage banquets. Program Administrators will provide information and resources on various opportunities. Scholars are also expected to explore options on their own. Student affairs offices, faculty, and student organizations are excellent sources for finding enrichment experiences appropriate for undergraduates. Regular UTSA courses are not considered enrichment programming.

Scholars may apply for up to $500 per semester (including summer) and no more than $1,000 per academic year in enrichment funding. Scholars may not receive more than $4,000 total in enrichment funding during their time as a UTSA Top Scholar.

Scholars should submit a request for funding in writing to Program Administrators no later than 30 days prior to experience, or 90 days if the experience involves any kind of travel. Students participating in an experience as a leader will be given priority for funding. Requests for funding should include:

- Full name of the event and organization sponsoring the experience
- Dates of the experience
- Purpose of the experience
- Scholar’s anticipated level of participation (student leader, session presenter, co-presenter, participant, etc.)
- Estimated costs (registration fee, lodging, and transportation)
- List of who will be attending with you
- List of classes, including professors, which might be missed

Requests for the UTSA Top Scholar program to fund experiences should be submitted directly to the Program Director by email. Reimbursements for enrichment activities will only be processed in the most extraordinary circumstances. Students are expected to make arrangements so that the program can pay directly for experiences.

No later than 7 calendar days after returning from a Top Scholar supported or funded enrichment experience scholars must submit a reflection report providing an overview of the experience. The overall format of the report is unspecified, but should include (1) reason this activity was chosen, (2) several items discovered or learned from participating in the activity, and (3) whether or not the major goals of participating in this activity were accomplished.
Request for professional conference funding

UTSA Top Scholars are encouraged to attend professional conferences within their respective fields of study. Program Administrators will provide information and resources on various opportunities. Scholars are also expected to explore options on their own. Faculty mentors, faculty within the college of your major, and career oriented student organizations are excellent sources for finding professional conferences appropriate for undergraduates.

Scholars should submit a request for funding in writing to Program Administrators no later than 90 days prior to the beginning of the conference. Students presenting scholarly research will be given priority for funding. Requests for funding should include:

- Full name of the event and organization sponsoring the meeting
- Dates of the conference
- Purpose of the conference
- Scholar’s anticipated level of participation (concurrent session presenter, co-presenter, poster presenter, participant)
- Estimated costs (registration fee, lodging, and transportation)
- List of who will be attending the conference with you
- List of classes, including professors, which might be missed

Requests for the UTSA Top Scholar program to fund attendance at professional conferences should be submitted directly to the Program Director by email. Reimbursements for conference travel, including airfare and hotel expenses, will only be processed in the most extraordinary circumstances. Students are expected to make arrangements so that the program can pay directly for expenses.

No later than 7 calendar days after returning from a Top Scholar supported or funded enrichment experience scholars must submit a reflection report providing an overview of the experience. The overall format of the report is unspecified, but should include (1) reason this activity was chosen, (2) several items discovered or learned from participating in the activity, and (3) whether or not the major goals of participating in this activity were accomplished.
Request to attend annual Scholar Summit

The Undergraduate Scholars Program Administrators Association (USPAA) Scholar Summit is an annual meeting designed to be an intensive networking, learning and leadership experience that will challenge undergraduate scholars in new and unique ways. This 3-4 day summit, hosted by different scholar programs across the country each year, takes place in the late fall (usually November). The UTSA Top Scholar program can send 2-3 scholars to the summit each year.

Scholars should submit a request, in writing, to Program Administrators to attend the summit. If accepted to attend, the UTSA Top Scholar program will incur the cost of the registration fee and travel expenses, including transportation and lodging. Scholars will be selected to represent the UTSA Top Scholar program at the annual summit based on the following criteria:

- Academic standing and class (upperclassmen will be given priority)
- Previous participation in UTSA Top Scholar activities
- Engagement in university-wide enrichment activities
- Demonstrated leadership within the UTSA Top Scholar program
- Commitment to return from the summit and serve as an agent of change within the UTSA Top Scholar program, sharing lessons learned and being a leader among fellow UTSA Top Scholars

Requests to attend the USPAA Scholar Summit may be submitted directly to the Program Director by email.

No later than 7 calendar days after returning from the USPAA Scholar Summit, scholars must submit a reflection report providing an overview of the experience. The overall format of the report is unspecified, but should include (1) reason this activity was chosen, (2) several items discovered or learned from participating in the activity, and (3) whether or not the major goals of participating in this activity were accomplished.
Appendix 7: Faculty Mentoring
UTSA Top Scholar program mentoring initiative
Faculty are invaluable resources to Top Scholars. Academic learning begins in the classroom with instruction from expert, dedicated faculty. This learning extends outside the classroom where faculty mentor Top Scholars by encouraging them to engage in research, study abroad, develop grant proposals, attend professional conferences, and seek internships.

Scholars are expected to actively engage in the faculty mentoring process, including identification of a faculty mentor. This includes working with program administrators to identify research interests and academic goals, and appropriately narrowing those interests and goals for the purposes of finding potential a faculty mentor.

During their first year at UTSA, scholars should:

- Identify 2-3 major academic and career goals
- Identify a field and discipline interest
- Identify 2-3 faculty with whom they share common research or academic interests
- Conduct informational interviews, and independently learn more about faculty members’ areas of expertise, and lab programs

Faculty mentors will be matched with scholars in the second year of study pending special circumstances. Scholars will meet with faculty mentors several times during each semester to discuss academic projects, professional opportunities, and development of post-graduate plans. Under the guidance of a faculty mentor, all scholars will develop, and maintain, a plan for professional development.

The following items are provided as guidelines for faculty mentoring a UTSA Top Scholar:

- Mentors will meet with students individually once per month during the first semester after being matched, and at least two times each subsequent semester;
- Mentors will discuss opportunities for research or creative projects in the students’ fields of interest;
- Mentors will advise and possibly sponsor students applying for grants;
- Mentors will alert students to professional opportunities, such as conferences or internships;
- Mentors will annually review the scholars’ Plans of Professional Development; and
- Mentors will encourage the students’ development of postgraduate plans, such as applying to leading graduate programs and prestigious national fellowships, or seeking employment in highly successful companies, nonprofit organizations, government agencies, etc.
- The UTSA Top Scholar program will offer support in the form of funding and other resources for approved activities through enrichment funding that scholars can apply to receive.
• The UTSA Top Scholar program will provide faculty mentors a letter to be included in the faculty member’s professional portfolio.
• Matches between mentor and scholar will be made in the scholar’s second year of study pending special circumstances.
• At the end of each academic year mentors will be asked to provide feedback on their scholar and the UTSA Top Scholar program mentoring initiative.

Plan of Professional Development
The Plan of Professional Development (PPD) allows each scholar to explore available opportunities, to organize them into a coherent and well-reasoned plan of action, and to maintain maximum flexibility in achieving personal and professional goals. Scholars will bring to their mentors the rough components to be included in this PPD, including a resume or CV, a personal statement explaining their individual career goals and objectives, and a list of short and long term goals. These plans, which will look very different according to discipline and research area, will be further developed into a cohesive plan or portfolio in consultation with the faculty mentor. The plans are particularly important in guiding their tremendous academic talents and in developing their outstanding potential to excel in coursework, to undertake research and artistic projects, to assume leadership positions, and to engage in community service activities.

Suggested activities and topics for discussion
The UTSA Top Scholar program suggests the following activities and topics for discussion as a means to initiate conversation and foster productive growth toward a plan for professional development. All of these items may be adjusted and tailored as appropriate for varying disciplines and areas of study.

Scholar initiated activities and questions
• Compile a resume or CV, a personal statement explaining individual career goals and objectives (Scholar Story), and list of short and long term goals (SMART goals). Take these items when meeting with your mentor.
• Shadow a faculty mentor for a day. Learn what a day in the life of a professor really looks like.
• Read the latest publication from their mentor.
• Ask probing questions about a mentor’s personal and professional experience. Examples include:
  o How did you decide to enter your profession? How did you get in to your specific research area?
  o How do you decide when and where to present your work?
  o What is the process for publishing in your research area?
  o Who are/were your mentors?
  o What was your process for finding a graduate program?
  o What are the top 3-5 programs in your area of research?
  o What do you look for in graduate students? What do you look for in new colleagues?
If you were preparing for a job interview, what would you do?
What has been your most valuable professional experience? How did you find and be a part of that experience?

Throughout the semester, the UTSA Top Scholar program will check in with scholars and mentors about the activities and discussions they are engaging in together.

Faculty initiated activities and questions

- Share 2-3 pieces of literature which have been pivotal to your own career development.
- Recommend 2-3 people for your scholar to interview or talk with who are doing great work in your area of interest.
- Invite your scholar to observe one of your graduate classes. If appropriate, have the student read 1-2 items to prepare for the class.
- Invite your scholar to attend a graduate journal club.
- Review your scholar's resume or CV. Make suggestions for improvement.
- Ask your scholars about where he or she wants to be in 3 years, 5 years, and 10 years. Make suggestions for actions to help them achieve those goals.

Petition for Top Scholar permission to enroll in fewer than 15 SCH

Per the UTSA Top Scholar acceptance agreement and handbook, all Top Scholars are required to enroll in and complete at least 15 SCH per semester and 30 SCH per academic year. Any and all exceptions to this policy must be approved in writing by UTSA Top Scholar program administrators. As of spring 2020, requests for permission to enroll in a reduced course load requires approval via a petitioning process.

Complete this form fully and completely no later than the last day of the semester prior to the semester in which you are requesting reduced enrollment (e.g. if requesting reduced enrollment for spring, this form is due no later than the end of the fall). Attach a degree plan and Honors College Experience Plan that is current as of the time of submission of this petition. The degree plan must have been reviewed with an Academic Advisor (2nd – 4th years scholars) or Honors College Counselor (1st year scholars) and include all majors, minors, and certificates being pursued, and reflect plans for study abroad and study away (e.g., Archer, internship, etc.) through graduation.
